

Some Facts about hidden germs of a car

- A car has up to 1700 times more bacteria than a home.
- 228 % More bacteria than a average toilet.
- Foot well contains 7 times the bacteria of a average toilet.
- Bacteria level 4.3 times higher than the average home in public transport.
- The inside of a typical car has 228 different types of bacteria per square cm.
- On an average the dirtiest part of a any car is the gear stick with 356 germs per square cm identified.
- Steering wheels have nine times more germs than public toilet seat.
- Around 700 harmful bugs inhabit the car's interior.

Germs hidden area in a car

- On Seat
- Cup holder
- Steering wheel
- In between seat
- Gear Stick
- Door handles
- Volume control of devices
- Safety Belt